

Jasper the Mule

Animated Series

“Confidence is believing you can do it!”
This great premise is more than proven out in this delightful children’s movie.”

~ Roxanne Capaul, children’s book author, on Jasper Goes to Bishop

Meredith Hodges

Creator and Executive Producer

Meredith Hodges, the world's leading authority on mules and donkeys, is also a respected trainer, champion equestrian and successful children's book author.

Educating and entertaining children through the character of Jasper the Mule comes naturally to Meredith. As the daughter of Peanuts creator Charles M. Schulz and mule and donkey breeder Joyce Doty, she uses her unique pedigree to introduce children to the courageous nature and fun-loving spirit of these remarkable animals.

Using easy-to-understand language and concepts, Jasper shares his adventures and strong friendships with his young viewers, teaching valuable lessons in an engaging way that children really respond to.

Meredith is also executive producer of the award-winning instructional series, Training Mules & Donkeys, and the documentary series, Those Magnificent Mules.

Jasper the Mule

Animated Series

All six of the Jasper the Mule shows are designed to help children understand how to be kind to animals. The series teaches patience and acceptance and celebrates traditional family values, while using plain language and simple concepts to explore more complex issues.

Young Jasper makes mistakes and learns valuable life lessons, allowing children to relate to someone who isn't perfect but who, through trial and error and with the help of friends and family, discovers that each of us can learn from our mistakes.

Each episode is packed with lots of excitement, hi-jinks and mysteries, and plenty of fun and interesting facts about—what else—mules and donkeys!

- Created by the world's foremost authority on mules and donkeys and respected equestrian expert, Meredith Hodges.
- Teaches how important it is to treat animals kindly and with compassion.
- Honest depiction of day-to-day life in rural America.
- Interesting, fun and surprising facts about mules, donkeys and horses.
- Realistic, interesting and often comical portrayals of equine behavior.
- Intriguing 'mystery' sub-plots.
- Strong family values underscoring.
- Educational facts and challenging vocabulary usage.

Jasper Goes to Bishop

● Ages: 3-9

Animated character Jasper the Mule wants more than anything to compete at Bishop Mule Days in Bishop, California, but he doesn't think he's got what it takes. One morning, he discovers he's been magically transported into the real world, and he sets off for Bishop Mule Days. Along the way, Jasper meets some very funny and helpful people. He finally makes it to Bishop and meets beautiful champion competing mule, Peepers. When Peepers is injured, Jasper must take her place.

Jasper doesn't think he can do it and decides to chicken out, but a mini donkey helps him find the self-confidence he needs to be brave. After some fast-track training, Jasper wins his events! Tired out after his big day, he falls asleep dreaming of home. When he awakes, he's back in his cartoon world with his friends and family around him. His friends insist that he just had a wonderful dream, but he finds a first place blue ribbon from Bishop Mule Days—with his name on it!

Messages:

- Self-confidence can help dreams come true.
- The importance of keeping a promise.
- The importance of taking responsibility.
- Why we shouldn't judge just by appearances.

Jasper A Christmas Caper

● Ages: 3-9

It's the Christmas season and Jasper and his human family are in high spirits as they travel to visit far-away friends a few towns over. When Jasper and his pal, Moxie the dog, get out of the yard and wander down a strange alley, the two friends are headed straight for one big adventure!

Presents disappear, mysterious strangers appear and friends go missing. But junior detectives Jasper and Moxie are on the case. With the clock ticking, Jasper has to use his "mule smarts" to tackle this puzzle of a mystery and put the pieces together before the big parade. But will he solve the mystery in time?

Messages:

- Mules are very smart and resourceful.
- The importance of telling the truth.
- We can accomplish a lot more if we work as a team.
- Positive message about cultural diversity.
- Christmas is a time for giving and sharing.

Jasper A Precious Valentine

● Ages: 6-12

When Jasper and his human family head up to Bald Mountain for a picnic to celebrate Valentine's Day, Jasper gets a crash course in love.

The picnic is a special one for Ben and Kylie. Ben has decided to share with Kylie some memories of her mother, who passed away when Kylie was little. As father and daughter bond, the animals are having their own adventures.

Moxie is at it again, heading into the woods for some very messy hijinks. Meanwhile, Jasper discovers a big surprise that changes everything and gives him a true understanding of the holiday – his very own beautiful Valentine mule!

Messages:

- What it means to care about others.
- The basics of rewarding animals for good behavior rather than punishing them for bad behavior.
- Important lessons about understanding and dealing with death, grieving, acceptance and healing, told plainly but compassionately.
- Deals plainly with feelings that arise between young girls and boys.

Jasper A Fabulous Fourth

● Ages: 3-12

It's the Fourth of July and Jasper, being a true mule, is feeling pretty independent. With his sidekick, Moxie the dog, in tow, Jasper decides to take a trip up to his human family's house, where a big barbeque is in full swing.

Jasper becomes the ultimate "party crasher," as he quickly learns that mules and swimming pools don't mix. A raucous day turns into a wonder-filled night, as everyone celebrates the beauty and majesty of our country and the pageantry of its birth.

Messages:

- Fun and accurate facts about the founding of the country and the important contributions mules made in that endeavor.
- The topic of slavery in the U.S. is dealt with honestly but in a way that a child can comprehend.
- The concept of patriotism is discussed.
- Freedom, responsibility and good citizenship are illustrated.
- Learning to be grateful for what we have and understanding why the "grass isn't always greener on the other side of the fence."

Jasper A Turkey Tale

● Ages: 3-9

Jasper the Mule learns that giving is better than receiving as he and his friends get ready to share Thanksgiving with the kids at the local orphanage.

When Jasper and Moxie come to the rescue of a lost pet who has to find his way home, everyone learns the lesson of the importance of giving and the simple joy that comes from being with those we love.

Messages:

- What it means to be thankful for what we have.
- Why sharing Thanksgiving with others is so much fun.
- How to accept each other's differences.
- How working as a team helps everyone and gets the job done faster.
- Interesting facts about the origins of Thanksgiving Day in America.

Powerhouse Animation Studios

POWERHOUSE ANIMATION STUDIOS

Biography

Powerhouse Animation Studios was founded by industry veterans Frank Gabriel, Bruce Tinnin and Brad Graeber. Powerhouse animators have brought to life characters such as Jay and Silent Bob, The Proud Family, Elmer Fudd, The Road Runner, Bugs Bunny and Yosemite Sam. Utilizing state-of-the-art technology to create a new approach to traditional 2-D animation, Powerhouse is known for their innovative, unique and fresh style. The Powerhouse team's film credits include work on Mulan, Lilo and Stitch, Anastasia, Titan A.E., Space Jam, Quest for Camelot, The Prince of Egypt, Thumbelina and The King and I.

DOUG BECK

Director of Animation

"Powerhouse Animation Studios has enjoyed the journey of bringing Jasper to life. We loved the challenges involved in taking Jasper from storybook to screen, as well as animating him and his four-legged friends. A Christmas Caper was completed by combining traditional, hand-drawn 2D animation with the technological advances and conveniences of Flash animation. Our hope was to combine these two elements to help tell the story in a fun and entertaining way."

Riders In The Sky

RIDERS IN THE SKY

Biography

For thirty years Riders In The Sky have been keepers of the flame passed on by the Sons of the Pioneers, Gene Autry and Roy Rogers, reviving and revitalizing the genre. The band is the recipient of two GRAMMY® Awards for Best Children's Album for Monsters, Inc. and Woody's Roundup. Their distinctive sound and compositions are irresistible and help to paint a picture of rural life.

"We decided on an underscore using both newly created situational cues and melodies and Riders In The Sky vocal performances of the Jasper theme songs. We hope that, through our musical composition and performance, we will continue to be a part of making Meredith's vision of Jasper come to life."

- Joey Miskulin, Riders In The Sky
